

Racial Equity and Interfaith Cooperation: A Story Exchange

When: Sunday, November 6, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Where: AMU 157

Campus Ministry and the Center for the Advancement of the Humanities invite current Marquette students to participate in our Narrative 4 story exchange. We believe that storytelling is an essential human experience that lays the foundation for interfaith cooperation, intercultural dialogue, and racial equity. A dinner and table discussions will follow. Please register for this free event here.

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY

Center for the Advancement of the Humanities

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY

Campus Ministry