Record Breaking Student Attendance in 2014

Integrating the Haggerty's exhibitions, collection, and programs into Marquette University class curriculum is at the heart of the museum's mission. As a forum for critical inquiry, the museum seeks to promote visual literacy and advance knowledge across the academic disciplines. In 2014, approximately 171 Marquette classes, serving nearly 3553 students (both graduate and undergraduate) took place in the Haggerty.
