WELCOME BACK!

Welcome back to our classes of 2024, 2025, 2026 and a special welcome to our freshman class of 2027! We are look forward to a fantastic academic year with you. Please join us for the Honors Welcome picnic on Tuesday, August 29 from 5-7pm on the lawn behind Sensenbrenner Hall!

HONORS INFO

Honors Suite: Sensenbrenner Hall, Room 002

The Honors suite is open for your use! Feel free to use the refrigerator, the microwave, and the whiteboard (no permanent markers, please). We welcome your company when the office is staffed during the day; just keep conversations on the quiet side during those hours.

All three floors of Sensenbrenner are open to you for study. As Sensenbrenner is the home of the College of Arts and Sciences, the History department, and the Center for Advancement of the Humanities please be courteous and respectful of the common spaces. In the seven years that Honors students have had extended-hours access to Sensenbrenner we have never had a problem, and we are sure that will continue!

- Honors Sensenbrenner Hours:
 - Monday through Friday, 8am – 12am
 - Saturday and Sunday, 7am – 12am
 - Outside business hours, doors can be opened by swiping your MUID (freshmen may not have access yet, but will soon).

Honors Advising

Academic advising is available to all Core and Disciplinary Honors students throughout the academic year. Conversations of all kinds are welcome -- come with a specific question or just to say hello.

- Online or In-Person (*Check posted schedule on the website)
- To make an advising appointment, visit the Honors Advising Calendar
- Standard appointments are 15 minutes. If you expect you will need more time, please email in advance
- If you sign up for an appointment but find you can't make it, please be courteous and cancel your appointment online or via email.
